

My life has improved dramatically since Indiana instituted the telephone privacy law. I get no junk calls. This is our right. Please do not tamper with it...it's working. Consumer rights need to be recognized.